THE OATH ADMINISTERED

JUSTICE LAMAR ASSUMES HIS OFFICIAL DUTIES.

He Dons a New Silk Robe, and Takes His Seat Among His Associate Justices. Speaker Carlisle Growing Better—House and Senate Proceedings—Notes.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—In the United States supreme court chamber at noon today the oath was administered to Mr. Lamar as an associate justice. Mr. Lamar accompanied the chief justice and other justices into the chamber attired in civilian dress, and remained at the clerk's desk while his commission was presented and read. He then read in a clear, earnest tone, the following oath:

"I, L. Q. C. Lamar, do solemnly swear that I will administer justice without regard to persons, and do equal right to the poor and to the rich, and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge all duties incumbent on me as an associate justice of the supreme court of the United States, according to the best of my ability and understanding agreeable to the constitution and laws of the United States, so help me God."

Justice Lamar then donned a new black silk gown and proceeded to the extreme left of the chief justice, where a seat remained vacant for the junior justice. As he approached this the chief and associate justices rose and bowed to their new associate and he in turn bowed to the court and to the bar. Justice Lamar took his seat and routine business was taken up. Among those present within the bar were Attorney General Garland, Secretary Vilas, Senator Vance, George Vicknor Curtis and others.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—In the senate today a number of petitions were presented in favor of a constitutional centennial exposition. Mr. Hoar reported the bill to fix salaries of United States district judges at $5,000.

Mr. Sherman reported and the senate passed the bill to reduce the fee for passports from $5 to $1.

The Hale resolution calling for information as to the employment and dismissal of Assistant District Attorney Westbrook, of southern New York, was adopted.

The bill to return the amounts collected by direct taxation from the states was then taken up and a motion to recommit it to committee was defeated.

The Berry amendment providing that where the tax was collected from individuals it shall not be withheld by the treasury on account of the indebtedness of any state.

The senate passed the direct tax bill by a vote of 48 to 10, and then resumed consideration of the educational bill, Mr. Brown taking the floor.

Bond Purchase Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The bill introduced in the senate to-day by Mr. Farwell, authorizing the secretary of the treasury to apply the surplus to the purchase of United States bonds, and to perpetuate the National banking system by providing further securities; authorizes the secretary to issue to banks in such amounts as he may deem proper, three-per-cent. bonds to run fifty years, and to take them in exchange for bonds now held by banks, paying the premium fixed by the New York market, and increasing the circulation of the banks to the par value of the bonds deposited. It further authorizes and directs the secretary of the treasury to apply the surplus at his discretion, to the purchase and cancellation of bonds offered in open market.

Getting the Tariff Bill Ready.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—A Republican member of the house committee on ways and means, says the Democratic members of the committee are expected to present their views on tariff to the full committee next week, and that it is not probable hearings will be granted to those who want to speak on the subject, while the finishing touches are being given the measure as has been done in the past, as the majority are opposed to consuming any more time than is absolutely necessary to get the bill ready to report to the house.

Mr. Carlisle Better.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—It is generally believed that the contested election case of Thoebe vs. Carlisle will come before the house before Saturday, and that it will be disposed of while Mr. Cox is speaker pro tem., and in the absence of Speaker Carlisle, who is reported very much better this morning. He has had no more chills, and it is thought he will recover rapidly.

The Lowrey-White Contest.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The arguments in the Lowrey-White contested election, from the Twelfth Indiana district, before the house committee on elections, was completed to-day, and the case is under advisement of the committee. Ex-Representative Van Manning, of this city, spoke to-day for the contestee, and ex-Senator McDonald, of Indianapolis, for the contestant.

The Public Land Committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The public lands committee of the house continued the discussion of the bill to repeal the homestead laws.

LABOR TROUBLES.

No Material Change in the Reading Strike.

Other Labor News.

READING, Pa., Jan. 19.—It now transpires that the memorial sent to President Corbin, of the Reading railway, was only signed by the committee of city council. Isaac McHose, a prominent iron manufacturer and chairman of the committee, appointed by the board of trade, declined to sign the document, and said the board of trade would have nothing to do with it. Mr. McHose addressed a letter to Mayor Kenney, accusing him of attempting as a Knight of Labor to make the memorial a one-sided affair.

As an excuse for not signing the memorial McHose, it is said, first alleged that he desired to have an exact copy of it to be transmitted to the miners in the coal regions. The action of McHose did not leak out until a very late hour last night and has created quite a sensation. Mayor Kenney says: "The reason that McHose refused to sign the memorial is because he was not given more prominence in the matter." The opinion is pretty general that the memorial should not have been sent to President Corbin at all.

Cigarmakers' Resolutions.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 19.—The members of local unions Nos. 100, 105 and 293, held a special meeting last night when resolutions were adopted declaring "That it is the sense of the organized cigarmakers of Philadelphia to resist any and all proposed reductions in their wages, and that they will fight any such attempt to the bitter end."

Resolutions were also adopted instructing the members of the union now on a strike to return to work pending the approval of their application to go on a strike.

Locomotive Engineers Asking an Advance.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 19.—A committee representing the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers of the Pennsylvania company's lines called upon Manager Baldwin to-day and presented a petition for an advance in wages. This, together with the conductors', brakemen's and yardmen's petitions now in the hands of the officials, shows that the movement is a general one. The officials are giving the matter careful consideration.

Notice of a Ten Per Cent. Reduction.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Jan. 19.—The Cambria Iron company has posted the following notice: "To enable the company to meet the great decline in the selling price of its products, it is forced to make a general reduction of about 10 per cent. in all wages and salaries to take effect on and after February 1, next. This order affects over 11,000 employees, of whom 7,500 are at Johnstown."

A Long and Stubborn Struggle.

SHEENANDOA, Pa., Jan. 19.—No effort was made to start the William Penn colliery to-day as the men refused to go to work. William Penn was regarded as the weakest spot, but all likelihood of the men going back has disappeared. It is not probable that efforts will be made to start any of the companies or individual collieries. The outlook indicates a long and stubborn struggle.

Carpet Weavers Strike.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 19.—One hundred Murkland and Crompton loom carpet weavers struck yesterday afternoon in Ivins, Dietz & McGee's mills at Marshall street and Lehigh avenue for the restoration of wages, and attempts will be made to induce weavers in other mills to quit work also for the same cause.

Failure of a Shoe Strike.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 19.—The long strike of the shoemakers in this city, which has continued since November 1, has collapsed, the men returning to work at the manufacturers' prices.

DRAWING TO A CLOSE.

Testimony in the Great Fidelity Trial Nearly All In.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 19.—Everybody was behind time this morning in the Hopkins trial. J. Harry Watters, the first witness, was fifteen minutes late. The crowd was large, eagerly anticipating something sensational. There was a liberal sprinkling of ladies.

Mr. Watters—who Mr. Bateman says is a "thorough bookkeeper"—testified that the American Exchange National bank, of Chicago, was credited with certain drafts of Irwin, Green & Company. The checks of Harper were substituted for these. But his checks were no good, so he had three certificates of deposit issued payable to himself. They are without date.

The first, No. 497, is for $300,000; the second, No. 499, for $200,000; the third, No. 500, for $200,000. In lead pencil, to the right of the first two certificates, are the dates February 28 and April 28.

"Were Harper's checks charged with these amounts?" was asked of the witness.

"They were not."

"Ought they to have been?"

"They ought."

Mr. Watters said these certificates were sent by Harper to the First National bank of New York.

"How do you know this?" asked Mr. Bateman.

"I am bookkeeper for the receiver of the Fidelity. The First National bank of New York has filed claims upon the two certificates for $300,000 each."

After a lengthy wrangle of counsel copies of the drafts were admitted in evidence.

Watters testified that if the drafts had been charged against Harper's account on May 31, it would have been overdrawn $646,909.53.

Miss Holmes, on redirect examination, stated that she had given the letters which she had sent to Harper to Hopkins' son Charles. She was sick at home. Harper sent Charles Hopkins to her, saying that he could be trusted, but the latter kept and opened the letters. The checks were signed E. L. H. and were three in number. They were drawn on the Fidelity for $200,000, $200,000 and $300,000. Miss Holmes stated in reply to a question by Judge Sage that she took the checks from the bank with some private papers of her own when the bank failed. She was desirous that Harper should have them.

The deposition of Teller Hinch was then read to the jury.

Frozen to Death.

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Jan. 19.—While passing between this city and Cadiz yesterday John Randolph, the hack driver, found a horse and buggy tied in a fence corner several miles from here and a man lying on the buggy seat frozen to death. He was a tall, fair man, with Burnside whiskers, and a stranger here.

Local Option Carried at Lebanon.

LEBANON, O., Jan. 19.—Tuesday was, perhaps, one of the most exciting days in the history of Lebanon. Some two weeks ago council passed a resolution submitting the question of prohibition under the Dow law to a vote of the people. The election resulted in favor of local option by a vote of 383 to 314.

Cut Her Throat.

RICHMOND, Ind., Jan. 19.—Mrs. Patrick Durkin, aged fifty-six years, cut her throat with a razor during the absence of the family from the house. She died in ten minutes; insanity.

A Three Days' Respite Granted.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 19.—Governor Hill has granted Dan Driscoll a respite of three days. The court of appeals has decided that Driscoll must hang.

DEATH ROLL INCREASING.

THE NORTHWEST BLIZZARD MORE DISASTROUS THAN REPORTED.

It is Now Ascertained That Hundreds of People Perished in the Recent Storms, While the Loss of Stock Cannot Be Estimated—Partial List of the Victims.

YANKTON, Dak., Jan. 19.—The list of dead who have perished in the storm continues to increase in numbers. Your correspondent has carefully investigated all reports which have been received thus far, and has only confined his work to Dakota and counties lying within twenty-five miles of Yankton.

Mrs. Wilson, of Running Water, teacher in a school five miles from Lindell, has been found in the prairie with nine of her school children, all dead. One was the child of Matthew Weiss, three of Christian Kias and three of George Gishart.

A. J. Winters of LaCrosse; J. O. Robinson, of Yankton; Joseph Kocorek, farmer; Nelson Hallibarton, farmer; Mrs. Frank Bambo, farmer's wife, were all frozen.

In Hutchinson county, W. B. Healy, of Parston, and two boys, were frozen to death. P. H. Sweet and wife and five children, near Olivetta, were out in the storm for fifteen hours and were so badly frozen that some will die.

Four deaths are reported from Douglas county. Lizzie Dyer, of Turner county, was lost in the storm, returning from school and her body found Friday.

Near Freeman, in Hutchinson county, five school children were found frozen to death. Three belonged to John Kauffman, one to John Albrecht and one to Peter Grather.

The wife of John Gunns was found on the prairie frozen to death. Several parties are missing.

Wesley Kocoreken, an aged Bohemian farmer, living about ten miles northwest of Tabor, was found on Friday morning in Creek Valley frozen to death. His team had not been found yet.

A man who came by the Cooley ranch in Bonhomme county yesterday says that in Cooley's heavy timber he counted 300 head of frozen cattle, besides a large number of hogs. On a section known by the Bohemians as Weiborney's Land, north of Tabor, through which a small creek runs, 140 head of cattle frozen stiff were counted. Farmers say that dead cattle and hogs in large numbers may be seen on every side of the road between Yankton and Bonhomme. The loss on stock seems to be greatest through that section.

The body of Frantz Weisener, who was found frozen to death near Utica, was brought to this city this morning to await the arrival of relatives from St. Helena, Neb. The corpse was frozen stiff and when struck gave forth a metallic sound. Divided into counties, the fatalities so far are: Hutchinson, seven; Yankton, three; Bonhomme, eight; Clayton, four; Turner, seven. All persons missing at this date since the storm may be classed among the victims of the blizzard. This will largely increase the death roll.

In Iowa.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, Jan. 19.—The fatalities of the late blizzard on the prairie districts of Iowa are being gradually made public. Byron Cleveland, of Manchester, Delaware county, has received information that his two sons, aged fifteen and seventeen years, were frozen to death during the storm, together with ninety head of cattle. The boys were driving the cattle to water, about a mile from the house, when the blizzard struck them, and their dead bodies have just been found. The cattle were frozen stiff.

John Olney was found in a snow drift near Marathon, frozen dead.

Miss Mae Henning and a boy named Julius, twelve years old, started in a sleigh to attend a party, in company with two young men. When the storm struck them they lost their way, and the young men deserted the lady and the boy, and reached a farm house in safety. The deserted pair remained out in the storm all night, and in the morning they were found partially covered with snow. The young lady will lose both legs, and the boy's hands and feet were badly frozen. He was saved from death by the brave girl, who wrapped him in the only blanket left them.

Railroad Blocked.

BOONE, Iowa, Jan. 19.—The worst blocked road in Iowa is the St. Louis, Des Moines & Northern, which has not had a train over its line since last Wednesday and little prospects of having one for several days yet. The last train left this city for Des Moines, Wednesday, and the train from Des Moines was overtaken by the snow storm and remained stuck in a drift two miles from that city, the train hands being obliged to walk back.

Down in Texas.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Jan. 19.—Two reports of freezing to death were received last night, in addition to those sent out Monday. A tramp, whose name is unknown, was found stiff near Henrietta. A negro named John Jackson and another colored man were frozen to death near Waco. No reports of loss of live stock in the Pan-Handle have been received as yet, although the loss is known to be great.

Custer County, Nebraska.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 19.—Advices from O'Neill, this state, report that in Custer county alone fifteen persons perished in Thursday's storm.

Cheating the Gallows.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 19.—The state pardon board to-day refused to commute the sentence of Edward Coffee, who murdered Police Officer Evans two years ago. A few moments after the action of the pardon board was announced to Coffee in his cell in the county jail, at 1:30 this afternoon, Coffee by some means, yet unknown, horribly gashed his throat and is now dying from the effects of his self-inflicted wounds.

Heavy Assignment.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 19.—The assignment of the San Francisco Bridge company was announced yesterday. It was caused by loss of money on a contract to improve the streets of the city crossing the arms of San Francisco bay. Liabilities $300,000; assets $200,000.

FOR COAST DEFENSE.

The Italian Government Orders One of Lieutenant Zaliniski's Dynamite Guns.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 19.—Messrs. William H. Cramps Sons have been awarded the contract by the Italian government for the construction of a Zaliniski dynamite gun, which is to be forty feet long, and to be made in three sections, and designed to throw a projectile weighing 600 pounds a distance of four miles.

The gun is now being made under the direction of Lieut. Zaliniski, and will be completed in about two weeks. It will be shipped to Spezzia, Italy, for coast defense. This gun is an experimental one, and should it prove satisfactory other orders will be placed.

LIEUT. ZALINSKY.

The Cramps have also in course of construction a dynamite cruiser for the Pneumatic Gun company, of New York, which will carry three of these guns. The vessel is 260 feet long, twenty-two feet deep and of 700 tons burden. It is probable that this vessel will also be purchased by the Italian government for coast defense.

AN ENGINEER'S DREAM.

He Refuses to Run a Train for Fear of an Accident—And It Happens.

BONHAM, Tex., Jan. 19.—The cannon-ball train from the east on the Texas & Pacific railroad, which was due here Monday night at 10 o'clock, was thrown from the track in Bois d'Arc bottom, two miles east of town, and did not arrive until 2 o'clock Tuesday morning. The train, which consisted of baggage car, two coaches and a sleeper, was running at the rate of about fifteen miles an hour over the trestle that spans the bottom, when the rails spread and caused the engine, baggage car and one coach to leave the track.

Fortunately the cars did not fall off the trestle, which was twenty feet high, thereby avoiding a terrible catastrophe. No one was seriously injured. A peculiar circumstance in connection with the accident is that the regular engineer for No. 41, David Lasler, was to pull the cannon-ball that night, but on being called at Texarcana to take charge of his engine flatly refused to go out, giving as his reason that he had dreamed that the cannon-ball would be wrecked between Texarcana and Bonham. Another engineer was procured.

THE OHIO LEGISLATURE.

The Standing Committees of the Senate Selected—Other Business.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 19.—The committee to select standing committees of the senate reported this morning. The chairman of important committees are:

Finance, Ford; judiciary, Townsend; claims, Geyer; public works, Richardson; railroads, Coulter; schools and school land, Stull; medical societies, Mack; municipal corporations, schools and universities, Cowgill; corporations, Stueve; insurance, Kerr.

A motion to displace Townsend from the chairmanship of judiciary was lost by a vote of 18 yeas to 14 nays. This kick was owing to Townsend's part in the senatorial muss.

The report of the committee was then adopted, 22 yeas to 3 nays.

A motion to reconsider was lost—12 yeas, 30 nays.

The absence of Algernon Granville from the city is attracting much attention as the time for hearing the tally sheet forgery cases approaches. Most of the others against whom indictments have been found are here.

Foiled With the Wrong Bull.

MEXICO, Jan. 19.—A popular bull fighter named Salera was killed Sunday afternoon in the bull ring at Puebla, while performing a difficult act known to habitués of bull fights as el salto de la garrocha, which consists in provoking a bull and then evading its charge by leaping over it from head to tail with the aid of a pole. The bull that killed Salera had been in the ring before, and appeared to be well acquainted with all the tricks of the toreadors. It made a feint of charging, and when its adversary had taken the leap, it stopped short and caught him on its horns, which were buried in his abdomen. Salera died before he could be removed from the ring.

Provisions Burned.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Jan. 19.—A Tribune's special from Fort McKinney, Wyo. T., says a disastrous fire occurred there yesterday morning at 1 o'clock, the post commissary building being entirely destroyed, involving a loss of $100,000, on which there is no insurance. The building was stocked with commissary supplies to last until next May. Only ten days' supplies are left, and the garrison has been ordered on half rations. The prospects are good for a famine on account of the difficulty in getting goods into the region. Gen. Brislin, the post commander, has telegraphed the nearest post for supplies by fast freight.

Chillilicote, O., Jan. 19.—At the German parochial school Tuesday, while the pupils were playing in the room at recess, a boy named Joseph Brookmeyer, was pushed against a stove, and, falling upon it, his face and body were burned in a horrible manner. He will recover.

Cold Weather Accidents.

SANDUSKY, O., Jan. 19.—John Ehrsam, employed in an ice house here, had one leg broken and received probably fatal internal injuries by being struck by a cake of ice which slipped from a runway. Mrs. Patrick Rice fell on the icy sidewalk, and broke her right leg.

THURSDAY EVEN'G, JAN. 19, 1888.

Mr. THOMAS ought to be given a rest now. No one ever doubted Mr. Carlisle's election, and the contest has ended just as everybody expected.

The assessed value of property in Kenton County this year is $23,618,721, the increase over the value in 1887 being a little less than $1,000,000.

The special judges in this State last year cost the tax-payers $4,999.90, and as usual a Republican district—Judge Finley's—comes in for the largest amount.

There is a falling off of one hundred and seventy-nine in the number of school children in Bracken County this year as compared with 1887, according to the Assessor's figures.

The Governor has vetoed a bill giving the Sheriff of Lyon County until May, 1888, to collect last year's taxes. The Governor says it is the theory and should be the practice of all governments to hold servants to a strict accountability.

Last year there were 2,947 legal voters in Bracken County, while this year the Assessor reports only 2,874. This is partly the result of the new law. The Assessors are not so particular now in making the returns full and complete, as they get paid for the value of the property assessed, and not by the number of names listed.

The Frankfort correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal says: "Judge A. E. Cole has made himself very agreeable to the members of the Legislature. He has shaken hands with a majority of them, and has been a guest both in the Senate and in the House. The Judge has a smile which is perpetual and manners that are Chesterfieldian. He is compactly built, dresses in broadcloth, with a Prince Albert coat buttoned tightly across the chest, and surmounts a finely shaped head with a glossy silk hat. His complexion is fair, his eyes brown, and his moustache and chin whiskers yet black."

Congressional Districts.
 The present Legislature will in all probability re-apportion the counties of the State into Congressional districts. In fact an apportionment has already been mapped out, but nothing final has been agreed upon, and there will likely be several changes made before the matter has been fully settled.

But if the State should be re-districted according to the plans agreed upon at present the Democrats will have a majority in ten districts and the Republicans in one, taking the vote for Governor last August as a basis. The following are the districts with the majority in each according to the vote referred:

DEM CRATIC.
First.....	5,741
Second.....	5,736
Third.....	2,400
Fourth.....	1,954

Eighth.....	81
Ninth.....	724

According to the above arrangement, this, the Ninth, district will be composed as follows:

The story comes from Harrodsburg that there are twin brothers living near there who look so much alike that when one of them joined the Baptist Church and was about to be immersed he found that he had no clothes suitable for the occasion, as he expressed it, and paid his brother 10 cents to be baptized in his place, which was done. The fraud would never have been found out had not one of the brothers gotten angry and given it away.

A LIFE OF PLEASURE.

HAPPY EXISTENCE OF THE INDIAN POTENTATES IN HINDOSTAN.

Native Royalty Under Surveillance—The Only Bugbear Which Haunts the Indian Ruler—Hotbeds of Intrigue—A Peep Behind the Scenes.

Of the dusky crowned heads of the world the life of a Hindostan king or queen is the happiest. They have literally no cares nor burdens, either political or domestic, and as long as they content themselves with a happy mediocrity of viciousness, they are permitted to regale their sensuous appetites with every species of sensual pleasure. The English rule in India is essentially a parental one. The Indian political agent is generally a military officer who has earned for himself the confidence of the government without ever having run any serious risk to either life or limb. He is invariably a very astute soldier, invariably enters into diplomacy as a poor man with a large and shabbily arrayed family, but always leaves the service with an immense fortune and a considerable estate in England. Sometimes the political agent and the native sovereign do not live amicably. Then trouble ensues, and the independent king or princeling goes to the wall.

Briefly stated, the political agent is expected to do but two things. One is that he keep the evil passions of the king, to whose court he is accredited, from stirring up strife and embarking in any hostile enterprise against the English; and the second thing to accumulate wealth and be civil to all European visitors of good standing.

THE IDLE LUXURY.

This, then, is the only bugbear that haunts the Indian ruler. Otherwise he is the most independent monarch in the world. It is true that he cannot wage war, nor make treaties, nor enter into political relations with foreign powers, but the Indian king of today has generally no inclination for such arduous undertakings. He has soldiers and forts and canons and improved weapons, but these are merely appendages of royalty and would be dangerous to him, only that his army is kept under control by his allies, the English, who have a military cantonment conveniently near his capital. Sometimes there are military outbreaks, notably in the state of Hyderabad, whose nizams has in his pay one or two regiments of Arab cavalry, which frequently mutiny. The maharajah of Gwalior is indubitably the most dangerous of these sovereign allies. He is a man of military instincts, and has an army, it is said, that could in an emergency show a roster of 300,000 men. After the Franco-Prussian war his royal highness reorganized his army upon the German system, completely discarding that of the French, which had before been his model, and so far did he carry his contempt that he deprived some half breed French officers of the positions they held in his service, on the ground that a nation which met with such terrible defeat in so short a space of time could not produce good soldiers.

The early life of a native king is not, perhaps, the very best school in the world to foster the noble qualities that may be inherited in a man's character. The zozana is a hotbed of intrigue. It is the part of the palace which is set aside for women, and as there are a few hundred of these royal wives, each of them perhaps with one or more sons, and each of them desperately anxious for his welfare, there is no doubt that the heir apparent runs more risk of being strangled or accidentally sat upon when cooing in his cradle than children of meaner origin. When he grows into manhood his father, whose regular course of immorality makes him a debilitated creature when other men of his age are just entering into the enjoyment of life, is jealous of him, and often as not tries to get rid of his eldest born by murder, and as often as not succeeds, for there is hardly a throne occupied by the original heir apparent.

SPECIMEN INDIAN KINGS.

It has been my good fortune to have seen several of these gentlemen, both in the splendor of durbar and in private. In public they are imposing. Their gorgeous dress, their diamonds and their precious stones heaped in the most negligent profusion upon their persons, make them most striking and impressive figures. Diamonds stud their sword hilts; they wear diamond waistbands, diamond sigrettes, diamond necklaces, diamond sprinkled shoes. Indeed, an Indian king in his full regalia is the king of the childish imagination. But divest an Indian king of his ornamentation and seek him in the privacy of his own apartments and you will find a meager man with a little white cloth about his loins, liberally smeared with grease, and obsequiously waited upon by women whose beautiful but scantily draped figures are for grace of motion unequalled in the world.

Singular as it may appear that women, whose life is but an immoral slavery, should exercise so powerful an influence over these men, it is from the harem that emanates most of the mischief done in India. Squatted upon a pile of luxurious carpets, with his long hukah tube in his mouth, much bejeweled and diamond crusted, with women playing with his hair or tickling his royal feet, serving him with sweet sherbets and singing to him lascivious songs, accompanied with the dance, surrounded with gossip and flattery, this scion of former powerful rulers passes the noonday hours in the underground apartments.—San Francisco Chronicle.

The Mania for Gambling.

The mania for gambling in and around Wall street is illustrated in queer ways. In recent walks in that part of the city I have heard bets made upon the color of men's eyes, upon the length of a man's moustache or the number of hairs in his eyebrows. It is a common occurrence which took place at Delmonico's, where I lunched with a well known man about town. He was accosted by a friend, who pulled a roll of bills out of his pocket and, holding up a $10 bill, asked the question: "Odd or even?" "Odd," said my friend, and when the number on the note was inspected and found to end with an odd figure the bill was passed over into his possession with a little ceremony as one would hand a nickel to a beggar.

The queerest bit of betting of which I have heard recently was made in a party of men and women who were dining at Delmonico's. They had fallen into a discussion about false hair, when one of the young women dashingly dared the men present to say whether she wore a false front or not. Her companion offered to bet $10 that the bang was false. A man across the table took up the bet. The girl looked at her escort with somewhat of dismay, as much as to say: "You wretch, you are about to expose me." Without a word he pulled out a pocketbook, drew a $10 bill from it and passed it over the table, saying to the other man: "You have won the bet. The young lady has satisfied me that she wears only her own hair." His gallantry was rewarded with a rare and grateful look and smile from the young woman.—New York Tribune.

THE EIGHTH CLUB.

Kansas City Will Play in the American Base Ball Association.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 19.—The important question of filling the American Association vacancy has been settled by the admission of Kansas City. Whitfield received a telegram from Kansas City telling him to make the best terms possible and they would be satisfactory. It did not take long to close the bargain. Kansas City agrees to furnish a $10,000 bond to fulfill all obligations entered into and to furnish transportation for the visiting clubs from St. Louis and return. The Metropolitan franchise was retained by the Association, so that any club may be placed in New York. The new club will be given preference in signing the Association players now on the market.

The following list of players has been submitted to Kansas City to choose from: Pitchers—Porter, Toole, Harkins, Lynch, Fagin, Morrison and Cunningham. Catchers—Donahue, Kinslow and Greer. Fielders—Jones, Allen, Swartwood, Phillips, Knowles, Hankinson, Davis and Cross. From this lot a first class club can be chosen. The new club will be organized at once.

Death of a Miser.

WARREN, O., Jan. 19.—The coroner to-day was summoned to Girard, where in his hut, where he had lived a miser's life for twenty years, was found the body of David Prince. He lay upon the floor, and as he was known to have much money, foul play was feared. The curious people began to ransack the place for treasure, and found in a chink $120 in currency and $1,000 in notes and mortgages. While tearing up the floor, which disclosed an underground passage, the authorities took possession of the premises. The coroner thinks Prince died from exposure.

Terrible Fire at a Christening.

MOUNT CARMO, Pa., Jan. 19.—At 5 o'clock Tuesday morning fire consumed a row of seven frame houses here occupied by Hungarians. Three men were burned to death and a woman and child are missing. The fire originated in a house where a Hungarian christening was being celebrated, and it is supposed was caused by drunken inmates upsetting a stove. The loss is estimated at $10,000. A rumor, which lacks confirmation, was current that the three men were killed in a quarrel and that the house was burned to hide the crime.

Perjury and Larceny.

WASHINGTON C. H., O., Jan. 19.—Marion Brown, of Ross county, brought here to answer to the charge of perjury in the Kirk-Coil case, was arraigned before Squire Hiser and bound over to court in the sum of $500. Milford Monroe and Sam Isley, colored, were both bound over to court in the sum of $500 by Mayor Millikan for stealing hogs from C. & C. M. railroad cars.

Charged With Arson.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 19.—Thomas Shafer and his son Ezekiel were arrested and charged with being implicated in the burning of a school house in the southwestern part of this township last spring. They each gave bond for their appearance at the next term of court.

Fell From a Train.

RAVENNA, O., Jan. 19.—John Lyons, a brakeman on the Pittsburgh & Western railroad, fell from his train, going at a rapid rate of speed. After lying on the track some time he managed to crawl to a farmer's house more dead than alive. It is thought he will recover.

The Mixer of Drinks.

This is a busy age and a busy country, and people do not want to be given unnecessary trouble through the stupidity of the mixer of their drinks. Just in the middle of a good story, or just as the point of an anecdote has been arrived at, the stupid bartender gets the orders mixed and is compelled to ask everybody again or serve you something you never thought of ordering. He interrupts the company without compunction of conscience, and the company and story are utterly broken up and knocked endwise. He becomes unduly familiar, but nevertheless never fails to forget the sort of drink you like, never remembers your name, gives you vichy instead of seltzer to mix with your liquor, and in a dozen other ways makes you wish he was a 1,000 miles away or else understood his business.—Tribune-Express.

THE STATE'S LAW-MAKERS.

Pointed Paragraphs About the Bills Passed or Now Pending at Frankfort.

Senator Worthington has introduced a bill to amend the charter of the Mayslick and Mill Creek Turnpike Company.

A bill entitled "An act to create the office of Master Commissioner in each county of the State of Kentucky, and prescribing the way in which it shall be filled and the officer's duties and liabilities and his pay," is pending in the Senate.

Dr. Norman has introduced a bill providing for the punishment of minors who obtain liquor by falsely representing their age. The penalty is fixed at $10 fine for each offense.

A bill to prohibit wife-beating is one of the latest acts introduced. It provides a punishment of ten to forty stripes on the offender's back, to be administered by the Sheriff, and allows a wife to testify against her husband.

There have been two hundred and ninety-eight bills introduced in the House to date.

Hon. J. J. Nesbitt, of Bath has introduced an important bill in reference to the concealed deadly weapon law. His bill proposes to repeal the present law, and in lieu thereof the enactment of one which makes it a misdemeanor for any one to carry any weapon other than an ordinary pocket knife, and an equal offense for a person to sell a minor a weapon other than an ordinary pocket-knife. The punishment on conviction is fixed at $100, and if not paid or reprieved the person convicted and fined is to be given into the custody of the jailer, and is to be worked on public roads, streets, alleys or buildings at the rate of $2 per day until the judgment of the court is satisfied.

Senator Huff, of Fleming, is after the money-lenders, and has introduced a bill providing that no interest shall be collected for loans greater than 6 per cent. per annum. All over that amount is declared usury and shall be forfeited, and in addition thereto persons so exacting and collecting shall be fined $500.

Kentucky Central Suits. The intervening petition of Morton, Bliss & Co., was also dismissed.

In the intervening petition of C. P. Huntington, demurrer to so much of the petition as sets up a claim for $34,088.47 was sustained and the petition dismissed as to said amount, with judgment in favor of Mr. Huntington for $28,465. The intervening petition of A. G. Drury was dismissed. There was also an order requiring claimants who have suits pending in the State Courts to file judgments in this court or transfer their cases there for adjudication before next December.

Pendium in Trouble. Alex Pendium, who figured at Morehead last summer as one of the parties in the conspiracy to kill Judge Cole, is in trouble at Flemingsburg. On two charges of violating the liquor law he was fined $60 each, and he got a $100 fine on another charge of the same kind. In addition to this he was given twenty-five days in jail and a fine of $10 for carrying concealed deadly weapons.

The Gazette says Alex has to live on the county's fare two hundred and fifty-five days to square accounts, when he will be called to Lewis County, to answer charges of wrong doings over there.

Years Teach More Than Books. Among other valuable lessons imparted by this teacher is the fact that for a very long time Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Medical Discovery" has been the prince of liver correctives and blood purifiers, being the household physician of the poor man, and the able consulting physician to the rich patient, and praised by all for its magnificent service and efficacy in all diseases of a chronic nature, as malarial poisoning, ailments of the respiratory and digestive systems, liver disease and in all cases where the use of an alterative remedy is indicated.

ED WHITAKER'S MURDERER.

He Pleads Guilty and is Sentenced to the Penitentiary for Life.

Some time last May the citizens of Georgetown, O., were shocked to learn that Henry Bascom Campbell had shot and killed Ed Whitaker, Marshal of that place. The killing was deliberate and had been carefully planned, and the tragedy was the most cold-blooded that ever occurred in that section. The grand jury promptly returned an indictment against Campbell for murder in the first degree.

The trial came up last Tuesday. Campbell entered a plea of guilty of murder in the second degree. This was accepted by the court, and Judge Loudon sentenced the accused to the penitentiary for life. It is the general opinion at Georgetown that a trial would have resulted in his conviction of murder in the first degree and a death sentence. Campbell is sixty-two years old, and has a wife and several children.

The case has a special local interest from the fact that Marshal Whitaker has two brothers living here—Judge Emory Whitaker and Mr. Nelson Whitaker, Superintendent of the County Infirmary.

Circuit Court.

The grand jury returned the following indictments:

Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad Company, creating and maintaining a nuisance. Blue Run and Anderson's Ferry Turnpike Company, suffering road to remain unfit for travel.

The Maysville, Orangeburg and Mt. Carmel Turnpike Company, same offense.

W. W. Watkins, selling liquor to a minor. Same, same offense.

A Wetland and John Fansler, same offense.

John Vaughn, carrying a concealed deadly weapon.

Louis Roser and Forman Roser, Sabbath breaking.

Jacob Helmer and James Archdeacon, same offense.

James Reed, selling liquor without license. Same, same offense.

The trial of Frank Ramsey for shooting and wounding George Ewing is in progress, and the case will likely go to the jury this afternoon.

Personal.

Miss Anna Gorey, of Paris, is visiting Miss Mamie Fitzgerald.

Miss Julia Worthington, of Fern Leaf, is visiting at North Middletown.

Misses Ida and Ora Wright, of Germantown, have returned from a visit at Bethel.

Judge Coons and family have gone to Augusta to attend the Cushman-Green nuptials this evening.

Mrs. Bettie Wood, of this city, was called to Bethel, Bath County, a few days ago by the death of her aunt, Mrs. Amelia Fink. The deceased was in her eightieth year, and was born in Fleming County. She had been a member of the Methodist Church sixty years.

MR. SAMUEL GOMPERS, of New York City, President of the American Federation of Trades, will lecture at the court house next Tuesday night on the subject of labor. All are invited to hear this old wheel-horse in the service. He stands in the front rank, among the leading labor reformers of modern times. By his dignity and commanding presence he arrests attention; by his force and earnestness he wins confidence; with his fund of anecdote and illustration, culled from a traveler's experience in the four quarters of the globe, he interests, and by his argument he arouses thought or carries conviction to his hearers. We still have on hand several old malds and one or two old bachelors whom we do not wish to carry over until next season. ## EFFECTS OF WAR RUMORS.

GERMANS PREPARING TO EMIGRATE TO THE UNITED STATES.

The Government Endeavoring to Stop the Rush of the Outgoing Human Tide—The Austro-Russian Frontier Soon to Become the Scene of a Bloody Conflict

LONDON, Jan. 19.—One thing can be surely depended upon as a consequence of the war rumors in Europe, that there will be such an emigration from Germany to the United States in the coming spring as was never witnessed before. Information to this effect comes from so many sources that it would seem that all the discontented who are so circumstanced that they can possibly get away from the country will do so.

The men, young and middle-aged, drilled into machine-like stolidity, as they are, do not admire the prospect of being shot at any more than the inhabitants of less warlike nations would, and the most strenuous efforts are being made by the civil and military bureaucracy of the government to discourage and prevent the rush of the outgoing human tide. Difficulties are thrown in the way of disposing of landed or other property, the lists of persons liable to military service are kept with the most scrupulous exactness, the frontier towns and seaports swarm with spies and detectives, and one steamship line, at least, has been refused permission to add extra vessels to its service.

The journals publish the most discouraging reports concerning American trade, the strikes prevalent there, outrages committed on foreigners, and the difficulty of their procuring work; but these are rendered nugatory by the letters from friends and relatives which give a truthful account of matters there, so that the intending emigrant is enabled to choose a suitable time for his voyage to the land of the free.

The Austrian states do not throw so many impediments in the way of those of their subjects, who wish to expatriate themselves, and the many Bohemians and Hungarians who have returned with, to them, considerable sums of money, have inoculated their former neighbors with the fever of emigration. These people generally go to the mining regions, and whether the strikes there continue or not, thousands will be on their way thither in a few months.

It is not strange that those who are regarded by their rulers as only so much food for powder should hasten to get away from the place which threatens to become soon the scene of a bloody conflict. No one believes in any assurance of a continued peace. Tenyson's line of "The nations snarling at each others' heels," was never more applicable than now, and the tension is so strong on the Austro-Russian frontier that many believe it best that the inevitable contest there should be fought out at once, thereby probably securing the peace of Europe for a score of years to come.

Both the Russian and Austrian troops on the border are suffering almost as severely in their improvised quarters as if actual conflict were in progress. The weather has been unusually cold and tempestuous, the quarters furnished unfit for men or horses, and the commissariat abominable. As a consequence diseases incident to these causes have been almost epidemic, and the death rate admittedly enormous, though it is claimed that the authorities have suppressed the publication of the real number of losses.

Frontier Forces Compared.

BERLIN, Jan. 19.—The Militar Wochenblatt publishes with authority a reply to the Invalide Russe's late comparison of the frontier forces. It says that authentic estimates of the peace effective stationed in the frontier provinces of Austria, Russia and Germany show that Russia has 315,500 men with 659 field guns, Austria 38,000 men with 160 field guns, and Germany 98,200 men with 338 field guns. The Wochenblatt next compares the military situation on the Russian side of the frontier with that on the German side, taking the forces within territories of about equal area, and shows that the Russians within 118,311 square kilometers have 123,375 men, 24,198 horses and 2,711 guns of all kinds, while the Germans, within 119,456 square kilometers, have only 81,714 men, 14,520 horses and 738 guns. The garrison of Warsaw, consisting of 20,000 men, 3,600 horses and fifty field guns, is contrasted with the garrison of Koenigsberg, consisting of 7,700 men, 1,400 horses and fifty field guns, and the garrison of Breslau, with 5,000 men, 1,600 horses and thirty-two field guns. Referring to the Invalide Russe's assertion that 4,850 kilometers of railroad have been constructed in eastern Germany since 1878, the Wochenblatt says that the railroad extension since 1878 amounts to only 18,600 kilometers.
